

What Caused these signs?

Diagnosticians are often asked to determine whether a chemical caused a toxicosis in a particular animal. The history, clinical signs, and laboratory data, will be presented of canine, and swine cases in a “What’s your diagnosis” format, to have audience participation in determining what caused the clinical signs based on the laboratory data presented.

Mike Murphy, College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Minnesota, 9134 St. Croix Trail N, Stillwater, MN, 55082, 612-625-1936, murph005@umn.edu.